Information about Language Course Visa

Note: All information is based on findings and experiences of the Embassy at the time of writing. Despite all care, no guarantee can be given for completeness and accuracy.

Kindly note that the Visa Section of the German Embassy in Budapest does not offer consultation over the phone. Address yourself via e-mail to the Embassy.

General Information

Pursuant to § 16 f of the German Residence Act, a foreigner may be granted a residence permit to participate in a language course that does not serve to prepare for studies. However, the foreigner does not have a legal right to this; rather, the granting of a residence permit is a discretionary decision of the German Embassy. A residence permit for a language course that does not serve directly to prepare for For acknowledgment of the foreign profession stay for study purposes. This means departure is mandatory after completion of the language course.

For acknowledgment of the foreign profession:

A language course to prepare for and in connection with the recognition of the foreign profession for the technical language test ("Fachsprachenprüfung") is possible, but after the language course, you have to leave Germany again. Another option would be to apply directly for recognition of the foreign profession (§ 16 d AufenthG). With this type of visa, you can stay in Germany after the language course until the recognition process is completed and you can start work straight away. In this case, you must submit the deficit notification ("Defizitbescheid") in addition to the documents below. You can find more information here: make-it-in-germany.com.
