General Information

The prerequisite for entering the country for marriage is that all marriage requirements are met. For this purpose it is necessary that the future spouses, before applying for a visa, first inquire at the German registry office at the place where the marriage is planned which documents are to be presented there and formally announce the marriage.

The future spouses must be able to communicate in the German. In the visa process, German language skills corresponding to level "A1" of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages of the Council of Europe must therefore be proven. The costs for fulfilling this requirement are borne by the applicant.

For information on language courses offered in Hungary and the possibilities of taking the language examination "A1", please contact the following address:
